		Preliminary Zoom Hearing

COMES NOW, Lincoln Savings Bank (“LSB”), by and through its undersigned counsel, and files this Joinder in Support of Debtors’ Preliminary Objection to UST’s Motion for the Appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee in support of Debtors’ Preliminary Objection to the United States Trustee’s Motion for the Appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket No. 44] (the “Debtors’ Objection”). For the reasons stated in the Debtors’ Objection, LSB opposes the United States Trustee’s Motion for the Appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket Item 41]. In particular, the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee would delay the current sale process, impose undue administrative costs to the detriment of stakeholders, and generally jeopardize these chapter 11 cases.

LSB supports the appointment of Gibbins Advisors and Ronald Winters as the Debtors’ Chief Restructuring Officer, particularly given such parties experience and existing knowledge of the Debtors’ and their operations.
